have overtaken them. While Dutch football education between 10 and 18 remains remains "unbelievably" good, he says "something goes wrong between 18 and 21. Dutch coaches somehow cannot transform phenomenal young talents into mature senior players." And domestic Dutch competition suffers when top young players are sold too early.

Dutch Total Football is a book born from a coach's passion for the Dutch style of football, a style of play which he has used to devastating effect for over 39 years, winning 24 District Championships (which includes 16 in a row).

Dutch Total Football – Coaching Dutch Soccer

When a coach sets up activities that have one standard of measurement or one winner, many players are not challenged. Players that can perform the task are often bored, while anxiety sets in with players that are not able to perform at the desired level. This method of coaching is similar to a setting up a parallel line for the high jump.
